ABOUT MYSELF

I'm a passionate web developer who enjoys building modern, responsive, and user-friendly websites. I specialize in front-end and back-end development using HTML, CSS, JavaScript, and React. I love turning creative ideas into functional digital experiences that look great on any device. I'm always learning new technologies to improve my craft and stay up to date with web trends. Outside of coding, I enjoy design, gaming, and exploring new innovations in tech.
